

don't doubt

one day in heaven they wrote a lover's song and here on earth another two lover became one but down in hell the devil claimed the choice for her to find her lover she'd be a singer with no voice up in heaven there was a silent cry course all the angels they demanded why, oh why did he want her to trade with nothing but her goddamn faith a silent whisper, so her lover could find and kiss her but down in hell he agreed with a smile that she could sing again but she'd have to wait a while he wanted her to trade with nothing but her goddamn faith a silent whisper

but so many times in live she just wanted to sing out loud so many times in live the devil and the angels shout so many times in live her devil wants her to doubt but so many more times in live her angels cry - don't doubt don't doubt, my dear

up and down in heaven they don't know about time but here on earth her live became a soundless line it's like heaven the day our lovers meet a kiss on earth against her whispered grieve, oh no and one day it happens, it's about Angie that she sings the devil lays his weapon down - no more whisper when she sings so many times in live she just wanted to sing out loud so many times in live her devil and her angels shout so many times in live the devil wants her to doubt but now her angels make her lover to show her how to never doubt now her lover shows her how angels never doubt now her lover shows her that angels never doubt so don't doubt my dear
