

hey there

hey there, honey babe
I am now wide awake
in the middle of a dream that makes me wanna scream
in the middle of a dream
all I wanna do is scream

I know now that I been made to feel all the pleasure I can no longer measure I feel a whole of a pleasure releasing deep down pressure but keeping in mind that I sing this song to a million of people singing along I need to keep the lyrics a little less hot than you let me tell you what is so intense it's pulling down my fence meeting you in the garden being there in the garden of love course hey there, honey babe why don't you take me with you into the garden I think you won't ever be pardon me and you in the garden of love, love, love

I'm not made for a too long wait so please now, come along play with me our garden song you now, over here
sing this song into my ear
