what if there is no other meaning to life than it being about being consider that there is nothing wrong with death ending life for not all too long calculate and subtrahate as much as you want it's the illusion of achievement that is hunting us to do what we do achievement is an imaginary word only existing because of some peoples hurt of not getting the obvious fact and that is

of not getting the obvious fact which understandably makes them go quite mad and that is life excludes all other than just being some maniacs back in stone age must have run against a wall and soon forgot the fun of life just being about being so they wanted their tribe believing all walls consisting of matter needing to be conquered by man and they named it achieving

what we do is so out of tune for so long we held so strong onto it course that's what we have been told but all it did was accumulate mould when we hold up the pretence need of there being anything that is to achieve
