

shut up

the thing with control is you got to let it go as long as you seek it you'll always be a mess

you never really got it when you indulge in it you bound to knot up inside and though it is tempting

to think to know the rules it's not till you're attempting to see it leaves you a fool

you need to shut up in your head don't push what lays ahead shut up, let it all fold out and while you're at it, try forget it to figure it all out

that we're told it is a must have but it is oh so hard for our soul to adjust to

it's a man made attempt to sell us a horrible future only their control can bend

that we're here on a planet spinning round and round with you name what on it so to try to control it is a despicable lie

just sit back and enjoy your ride
